109. <http://www.memoriallibrary.com/CO/1898DenverPB/pages/pbrd0800.htm>, Part 1, HARRY A. LEE was appointed Commissioner of Mines for the state of Colorado May 11, 1895, by Governor Albert W. McIntire. The Bureau of Mines of the state of Colorado was created by an act of legislature, approved March 30, 1895. Owing to the financial distress of the state, the status of the office was soon attacked and the State Board of Equalization recommended that the state auditor suspend payments of appropriation provided by the legislature. Through legal advice sought, it became clear to Mr. Lee that the establishment and maintenance of the office was commanded by the constitution of the state. Acting upon this theory, mandamus proceedings were had by the commissioner of mines against the state auditor in the district court. The decision was in favor of the bureau and was later affirmed by the supreme court of the state. Both courts decided "that the office was created in pursuance of a constitutional mandate," and that its status was the same as any other state office. Mr. Lee is well equipped for the duties of his office and his interest and zeal are evidenced by the progress made, having, among other things, made one of the finest mineral collections in the west..
110. <http://www.memoriallibrary.com/CO/1898DenverPB/pages/pbrd0800.htm>, Part 2, The father of our subject, E. A. Lee, M. D., was born and reared in Ohio, graduated from Rush Medical College at Chicago, and during the Civil war served four years as surgeon in an Illinois regiment, with the rank of major. After the close of the war he located at Du Quoin, Ill., and followed his profession for several years. On account of asthma, necessitating change of climate, California and other places were visited and settlement finally made in Colorado Springs, Colo., in 1875. After several years' residence, another change became necessary and he removed to Fort Collins, Colo., and is still practicing his profession at that place. He married Margaret M. Farnan, who was born at Sparta, Ill., the daughter of Joseph Farnan, a southern Illinois pioneer and a medical graduate of an Irish college. Both Dr. and Mrs. Lee are still living, as are two of four daughters and one of two sons. Born in Sparta, Ill., our subject was there reared and educated in the Du Quoin high school, completing the junior studies in the Illinois Industrial University at Champaign, Ill. He was self supporting from an early age, having acquired the trade of printer, which was dropped on account of health, and later the trade of machinist. In 1877 he began mining at Joplin, Mo., and in 1879 came to Colorado. In 1880 he went to the Gunnison country, and has since that time followed mining in its various branches, settling at Ouray, Colo., in 1887, which point he designates as "home."

111. <http://www.memoriallibrary.com/CO/1898DenverPB/pages/pbrd0800.htm>, Part 3, Mr. Lee has always been an ardent Republican in politics. He was appointed colonel on the staff of Governor John L. Routt and served as secretary of the Republican state central committee in 1892. Fraternally he is a member of Fort Collins Lodge, A. F. & A. M.; Ouray Chapter, R. A. M., Ouray Commandery, K. T., of the state, and a member of El Jebel Temple, N. M. S. He was married to Teresa M. Killelea at Ottawa, Ill., in 1887, and they have three children living: Margaret Mary, born August 10, 1891; Julius Joseph, born October 19, 1892; and Mary Ione, born August 31, 1894.
